OF BLADEN COUNTY. ELECTION FIRST THURSDAY IN AUGUST.

AGENCY. JAMES M. REDMOND, Post-master at Tarboro', is Agen for this paper, for Edgecombe and the adjoining coun tics. Mr. R. will take pleasure in receiving new sub acribers and receipting for any moneys due us in that and Beaver streets, N. Y., is our agent, for receiving Advertisements in that city, for publication in the Journal. He will also receive subscribers for the same.

83-The Editor of the Journal has been absent from his post since last Sunday, in attendance at the meeting of the stockholders of the Wilmington and Manchester Rail-road at Marion; and of course he has not been able to pay any attention to this day's paper.

THE NEWS FROM MEXICO.-We have copied from the New Orleans Picayune, some further accounts from our armies in Mexico. The news contained in Mr. Kendall's letter of the 22d May, is not so late as that we gave last week; but as he has a good opportunity to judge of matters and things in that benighted section of the world, we place his letter before our readers.

Our dates from Gen'l Taylor's Division, is later than before received. Gen. T. is waiting reinforcements before he can think of making a move on San Luis Potosi.

Col. Doniphan's command have all arrived at N. Orleans in fine health. But very few deaths occurred amongst his volunteers during the whole route from Fort Leavenworth to Matamoros, a distance of 2,800 miles. LATER. - Since we penned the above, we have received later news from Gen. Scott's army. It will be found under the proper head. Act-Agreeably to previous notice, a meeting of the subscribers to the Wilmington an Manchester Railroad in this town, was held at the Masonic Hall on Friday night last, for the purpose of appointing delegates to repre sent those who could not aftend the conven-

Some further accession was also made to the amount of subscription by our citizens.

THE PORTSMOUTH ROAD,-Our readers wil recollect that we stated, on the 11th inst., that a rumor had reached here, to the effect that a company of Northern capitalists were negotiating for the purchase of the Portsmouth Rail Road, and also the purchase of the Gaston Road. We understand since, upon reliable authority, that they have purchased the Portsmouth Road, and that it is their intention to continue said Road to the Gaston Road. We believe from what we have heard about this Northern company, that it is their intention not to stop at what they have already accomplished, but that they will probably push on and lay down a road still farther South. Would it not be wise for them to direct their attention this way? We are inclined to believe it would. And we are of opinion that it would not be amiss for those of our citizens who feel interested in the construction of the the company acquainted with the advantages that would naturally follow from the building of the latter road. When we say building, we do not intend to be understood, that we do mean is, that with the aid of the company alluded to, this road can be built at much organizing the Wilmington & Manchester company, and we hope they will not suffer this matter to slip their attention.

Santa Anna's Letter .- We alluded in our last number, to the letter of Gen. Santa Anna, resigning his post as president pro tem. of the astic, and pledged to the cause in which he is republic of Mexico. As our readers may be curious to see what he has to say for himself, the letter in this day's Journal. We believe with Mr. Kendall of the Picayune, that "as a to take her, as a last resort, under her own protection; for it has been plainly demonstraus, that she is utterly unable to govern herself. We look upon the matothers, but we can see no good that is calcumust be a stopping place to all things, and when an article goes beyond its highest pinacle, it must begin to look downwards, and it is invariably the case, that when it once begins apt to crush the very persons that were instrumental in advancing it above its real value. Such, it seems, has been the result of the late speculations in Breadstuffs.

The federal candidate for Congress in this district, has commenced the old tricks of which his party is always guilty. Instead of confining himself strictly to the principles (?) of his party, he has, in some portion of his address which has caused the columns of the Chronicle to groan for the last three weeks, on account of its extreme length, brought before the tend to deny Mr. Hall's statement. But sup- will fall harmless at his feet. pose Gen. McKay did say that he had voted with the whigs twice, and that he should not do it again. Does that go to prove that Gen'l McKay is not fit to represent the people?-Really, this is a matter which we think Mr. Hall had as well kept dark; for we feel quite sure that the democracy of the district will appreciate McKay more highly than ever for his determination. After what session of Congress Mr. Hall alludes to, he does not inform us. But we see no use in wasting paper in defence of Gen. McKay; the people appreciate his talents and worth too highly to suffer such pitiful charges as Mr. Hall has seen fit to make, to swerve them from the path of duty which they owe to their Republican principles in again electing Gen'l McKay as their representative to Congress.

How, we should like to know, Jas. J. McKav voted to to tumble, it goes with such force, that it is is the case? The proviso, although an unnecessary one, according to our thinking, does not censure Gen. Taylor or any of his brave officers. The resolution itself is couched in the most flattering language. It was not passed in February, as the Chronicle asserts, but on the 30th day of January, 1847. This, however, is a matter of no moment.

We have, perhaps, paid more attention to this subject than it deserves, but it is our duty, as the friend of Gen. > THE WAY THINGS USED TO BE CONDUCTED .-The Philadelphia Evening Bulletin says, that workmen are busy in pulling down an old edifice in Chesnutt street, recently occupied by the Bank of North America, to erect a new structure. Among the papers stowed away in the garret of this venerable pile of brick and morter, some old newspapers have been found, which, compared with the large sheets of the will soon be en route for the seat of war, as present day, are quite a curiosity. The Editor has been furnished with one of these relics of the olden time. It is entitled "The American Weekly Mercury," published at Philadelphia, by Andrew Bradford, and bearing date November 28, 1728. MEXICAN PRIVATEERS IN THE MEDITERRA-NEAN .- The Washington Union of Wednesday evening makes the following official announcement in reference to the preparations made by the Government to put a stop to the doings of the Mexican privateers in the Mediterranean :-

"Orders were sent to the commander of the African squadron, on the 7th of April last, to send a sloop immediately to the Mediterranean to guard our commerce against this danger, and to follow her in the frigate United States early in September. There is every reason to believe that the sloop Marion, with a storeship, has before this arrived at Gibraltar. The steamer Princeton is in active preparation at Philadelphia, and will sail without delay to the Mediterranean.

"We understand that the administration has long since taken all the measures which were practicable to provide against the occurrence or repetition of such outrages.

"There is no reason to apprehend any want of good faith on the part of the Spanish government. The prompt and decisive measures taken by the governor-general of Cuba, under orders from his government, which effectually prevented the sale of the privateer licenses, (which were but licenses to commit acts of piracy,) justify us in believing that no countenance will be given by Spain to those who Holmes, son of the late Mr. Owen Holmes, of Rice. WILMINGTON MARKET-June 24. BACON.—The supply of Bacon continues large, but we have no change to make in our quotations of this day week.

CORN.—The advices per last steamer at Boston, has had a tendency to check the late high prices of corn. We notice a sale of 600 This certifies that I have recommended the use bushels from Fayetteville at $1 per bushel; of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry for diseases and 1200 bushels, in bags, from Charleston, at $1 18, including bags. The stock on hand all with beneficial results. In two cases, where it is considered very heavy for the season. A was thought confirmed consumption had taken very good judge informs us that there is about 10,000 bushels now in the market, on sale .-This of course is intended to include all in store. Dealers are selling from store at $1 15 a $1 20, according to quantity. Meal has : lso fallen a shade, and we quote at $1 20 a FLOUR-This article has also been affecafter the skill of the best physicians was unavail- ted by the fall in Europe, but not to that defor it. This fact has caused several unprincipled gree here as experienced in the Northern marcounterfeiters and imitators to palm off spurious kets. We quote Canal, retail, at $9 25 a $9 mixtures, of similar name and appearance, for the 50. Some dealers asking more. Fayetteville is selling at $8 50 a $9 00, with a fair supply on the market.

HAY-Sales of about 100 bales at 80 a 85 cents per 190 lbs. LARD—The market is but poorly supplied with this article, and is firm at quotations. with but few sales.

MOLASSES -- No receipts. The market is perfectly bare.
